
Christmas 2007

Posted by graham pyle - 2007/12/29 03:20

Being a dyed in the wool Northumbrian, I would like, on behalf of my Wife and Myself, to say how much we enjoyed spending Christmas in your community. It is lovely to know that there are other parts of rural England where you can see the stars at night, but above all 'hear the silence'. We are both looking forward to visiting again soon.

Happy New Year.

Graham and Gwyn Pyle
Heddon on the Wall
Northumberland

Parents of Dr Megan Phillimore-Brown,
who has recently moved into Wickhams,
The Street.

=====